

Winter 2017 Student Success Workshop Series

Day/Date/Time	Title	Description
Th, 1/12, 12-1pm	Study Skills Essentials: Simplifying for Success	Learn to better balance your time, tasks, and course material with this all-in-one study skills session. We'll cover lecture prep, scheduling study time, organizing your thoughts and tasks, as well as how to make the most of your study sessions.
Tu, 1/17, 4-5pm	How Do I Manage My Money on Minimum Wage?	In this workshop, we'll discuss how to effectively budget on a limited income, as well as find small savings opportunities.
W, 1/18, 11-12pm	Developing Effective Study Habits for Math	Master that math course with sanity-saving study strategies straight from our Mathematics Learning Specialist, Len Hernandez.
Tu, 2/7, 3-4pm	Procrastinating on Exam-Prep: The Dangerous Reality	Procrastination is an easy habit to write-off as unavoidable but when it comes to preparing for exams, this behavior is your GPA's worst enemy. Join us to learn a more simple strategy for effective test-prep that will benefit you this semester and beyond.
W, 2/15, 4-5pm	How Do I Start Building Credit and Raise My Credit Score?	What is the most efficient ways to establish a clean credit history and to raise your credit score? Join us to find out.
Tu, 2/28, 3-4pm	When Will I Ever Use Math?	Brighten your outlook by thinking beyond your grade to focus on the lifelong benefits of your math class.
M, 3/20, 4-5pm	Stress Management: GPA-Saving Strategies	Get a better understanding of what causes academic stress, how to manage it, and how to prevent future stress. You'll leave this session armed with various coping skills to combat persistent feelings overwhelm during times of stress.
Th, 3/23, 4-5pm	Do I Even Need a Savings Account?	Join us to discuss how to manage money using different banking services and popular finance apps.
Th, 3/30, 2-3pm	Analyze Your Test to Improve Your Test Preparation	In order to improve future test scores, it's imperative to understand what went wrong on previous tests. This session can help you learn how to analyze returned exams to ensure a more effect exam prep.
W, 4/12, 4-5pm	How Can I Invest $500?	In this workshop, we'll discuss investing basics and efficient ways to allocate even a modest amount of savings.
Tu, 4/18, 12-1pm	Aim for the A: Final Exams Prep Workshop	Study-planning, testing tips, test-anxiety advice...we've got you covered for finals.

All sessions held in Academic Success Center Lab (1600 UGL)

Seating is limited, register today at success.wayne.edu

