

Job Title:	GRADUATE STUDENT ASSISTANT – STUDY SKILLS SPECIALIST
Days/hours & duration of job:	20 hours/week
	Seeking a graduate-level Study Skills Specialist with a flexible schedule. Work location will be both online and in-person (Academic Success Center – 1 st floor Undergraduate Library).
Wage/Salary:	$16.00/hour
Employment Start Date:	ASAP
Job Description:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Deliver one-to-one customized study skills planning sessions for undergraduate students • Stay current with evidence-based study skills • Design and facilitate study skills workshops • Work closely with the Associate Director in coordination of the First Year Seminar (FYS 1010) program • Teach at least one section of FYS 1010 • Market study skills services to the WSU community • Collaborate, as directed, with ASC programs and other university collaborations • Demonstrate sensitivity for appropriately supporting a highly diverse staff and student body • Assist with data collection, analysis, and reporting for projects generated through the Study Skills Academy • Related duties as assigned
Qualifications:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Seeking current graduate student in a social science program such as: Learning Design & Technology, Educational Evaluation & Research, Counseling, Education, Psychology, Sociology, etc. • Experience teaching and/or tutoring experience is highly preferred • Applicants must demonstrate commitment to diversity and sensitivity to different learning approaches, abilities, and backgrounds • Applicants must have their Bachelor’s degree; Master’s degree holders or candidates are preferred
Application Instructions:	Complete your application at the link below: Graduate Student Assistant - Study Skills Specialist Application Those selected for further consideration will be contacted. Please, no calls or walk-ins.